

Eight More Scorn Hearst As Welcomer

Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan Among Those Who Decline Committee Places

'Forward' Editor Accepts Ex-City Official Refuses to Serve With Publisher in Greeting Soldiers

Eight more refusals to serve on Mayor Hylan's committee of welcome to returning soldiers, of which William Randolph Hearst is an active member, have been sent to the Mayor's office. One of those who declined was Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan. Mr. Morgan refused to serve several days ago.

Mayor Hylan, however, has received one more acceptance to be chucked up beside Mr. Hearst's name—that of Abraham Cahan, editor of the Jewish daily, "Forward." The East Side Socialist editor mailed his acceptance before sailing for France to "cover" the peace conference, but is expected to return in time to greet the majority of the returning fighters.

Would Order "Eyes Left"

These are the persons whose refusals to serve are the latest to reach Mayor Hylan, with the reasons they gave:

MRS. WILLIAM FELLOWES MORGAN: "I declined to serve on the committee."

DR. S. PARKES CADMAN: "I wouldn't serve on any committee with Hearst."

FRANK L. CROCKER: "I declined to serve on a committee of which Mr. Hearst is a sub-committee chairman."

E. H. QUINN: "I refused to serve on this committee. If I was in command of troops passing in review before Hearst in a stand on the right hand I would give the command, 'Eyes left!'"

JAMES BUTLER: "I declined to serve."

COLGATE HOYT declined to serve because he would be "out of town."

CORNELIUS WOLKIN: "Having witnessed some of the suffering of our men abroad, I confess that if I was in a parade of returning soldiers I should prefer to reverse arms rather than march them before the man the Mayor has chosen to conduct these sacred ceremonies."

City Official Declines

A former city official, who sent in a refusal to serve, asked that his name be kept out of the discussion.

Frederic J. Ball, publisher, said over the telephone that he had accepted the invitation to serve on the committee before he understood that Hearst was to be a member.

"As I am unalterably opposed to Hearst," said Mr. Ball, "I am sending forthwith to the Mayor my resignation from his committee of welcome."

A city official who prefers not to be identified, said over the telephone that he had accepted the Mayor's invitation to serve, but that he was disappointed to learn that Hearst also was a member.

"I shall remain on the committee," he said, "hoping that Hearst will resign, and that the Mayor will then ask this man."

"I certainly will not take an active part while Hearst is a member," he said.

The Very Rev. Father Bernard, whose church is in the Bronx, refused to say whether he would accept the Mayor's invitation. "I've given my information, for or against, to the committee of welcome. That's all I'll say," he said.

Finley J. Shepard's secretary said that no decision had been reached by Mr. Shepard, who has been considering the invitation to become a member of the committee for nearly three weeks.

Grand Army Post Protests

One of the revolutions of protest handed to Mayor Hylan yesterday was adopted by Lafayette Post No. 140, Department of New York, Grand Army of the Republic. There are only 100 members left out of the original 600 Civil War veterans who once belonged to this post.

George E. Case is commander. They adopted the resolution at a meeting Friday night. It reads:

"The people of the United States, now moved with a great enthusiasm, to aid in the reconstruction of the homecoming soldiers, who have so grandly participated in the liberation of world civilization. We Americans, with affection and pride, and with our outstretched arms, would take them to our overflowing hearts and extend to them our blessings. None but 100 per cent Americans are worthy to clasp the hand of him who has borne our colors and our arms and struck down the Hun assassin."

"Therefore, it is resolved that we learn with astonishment and indignation of the appointment of William Randolph Hearst to the New York City committee to welcome these our soldier sons and grandsons, and we condemn it as an eminently unfit and insulting not only to the men and women who are serving their country but to all Americans."

One Doctor Kills Another

Slayer Japanese Alienist: Jealousy Over Nurse Cause Alleged

BALTIMORE, Dec. 21.—Dr. Mohrby Ishida, a Japanese and a member of the medical staff of the Sheppard Pratt Hospital here, shot and instantly killed Dr. George B. Wolfe, another physician of the hospital, in the office of the institution to-day. Jealousy over one of the nurses prompted the deed, according to the police, who said that Ishida told them he had killed Wolfe because he was jealous of him.

Hospital physicians, who dismissed Ishida, declared, however, that he told them that Dr. Wolfe had constantly accused him of being a Japanese spy, and had circulated false reports regarding his conduct toward nurses in the hospital.

Dr. Ishida is a professor of mental diseases at the Johns Hopkins University Medical School.

Stop Influx of Laborers From Mexico and Indies

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—No more permits for the importation of Mexican and West India labor will be granted, the Department of Labor announced to-day, and permits already granted will be void after January 15. Aliens permitted to enter temporarily for war work will be repatriated gradually, without interfering with agricultural or other work now in progress.

The admission of semi-skilled laborers from Canada will be discontinued. Men from the Bahama Islands and Jamaica admitted as agricultural laborers will be permitted to remain for the present agricultural season or until the particular work for which they were imported has come to an end.

Social Centre for Police

They May Uncork Feelings There New Year's Day

After January 1, when policemen have done their constabulary duties they may retire to the Police Club and uncork their smothered feelings, for Dr. John A. Harriss, Special Deputy Police Commissioner, has given the department a social and recreation centre for the policemen's life a happy one, and it will be opened New Year's Day.

The club is completely equipped with everything a club should have and occupies two four-story brownstone apartment houses at 187 Riverside Drive, between Eighty-sixth and Eighty-seventh streets. Besides serving as a social and recreation centre for the department, the club will be a common meeting place for the associations organized within the department. The Mayor and other city officials are to be present at the housewarming New Year's Day.

Williamson Starts

New Legal Battle to Keep His License

Attempt of Commissioner Harman to Regulate Sale of Papers Is Called Abuse of Power by Attorney

John Williamson, the Borough Hall newsdealer, has begun action to block the attempt of Park Commissioner John N. Harman of Brooklyn to withhold the renewal of his license when it expires December 31.

Lemuel E. Quigg, counsel for Williamson and other newsdealers, obtained an order from Justice Crosey, of the Supreme Court, directing the Park Commissioner to show cause why he should not be restrained from advertising or accepting bids for the privilege of selling newspapers in Borough Hall. The order is returnable December 26.

Williamson's persistent refusal to sell Hearst newspapers because of their questioning loyalty has made him the target of Hearst's friends in the city administration.

Quizz Attacks Position

On December 13, or thereabouts, Park Commissioner Harman, diverging from the usual procedure of renewing licenses, advertised for bidders to sell to himself, in the advertisement, the right to determine what newspapers should be sold on the stands.

Mr. Quigg has attacked the position of the Park Commissioner on the ground that it is an abuse of his discretion, and that it is possible, in the hands of a prejudicial or corrupt official who might come into office, to most gravely abuse it.

He represented that the law in placing discretion in the hands of public officials has regard not only of careful and honest and capable men, but men whose motives may not be good.

Might Regulate Menu

A Commissioner's discretion to decide what daily newspapers can be sold on the stands, he declared, without having regard for the newsdealers' custom, not only crosses the newsdealers to loss, but takes to himself a dangerous discretion. And if he can say what papers must be sold, he added, he can say what brands of cigars or what makes of candies shall be sold; he can exclude as well as include; he can prescribe the daily menus in park restaurants, and he can restrict the restaurant keeper from including his favorite dish, say of corned beef and cabbage, he could take away the restaurant man's license.

Benefit for Cathedral

Many Artists to Appear on Program at Hotel des Artistes

A benefit will be given this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Hotel des Artistes, 1 West Sixty-seventh Street, for the Russian Cathedral of St. Nicholas, famous for its choir. Most of the Russian churches throughout the country are self-supporting, but the cathedral and its staff have always been dependent upon the interest of $1,000,000 set aside from the price paid for Alaska by the United States.

Since the lapse of communications between Russia and America no funds have been received for general support or for imperative repairs.

Among the artists who will contribute their services this evening are Mme. de Vere Sapiro, soprano; Mmes. Valeri and Galante, dancers; Mmes. de Primo and Serge, pianists; Mmes. Marie Sundelius, soprano, of the Metropolitan Opera House; Mme. Roshnara and the Russian Cathedral Quartet.

Vassar Asks $100,000 More

Deficit Will Be Met if Alumnae Meet Offer

If the Vassar Alumnae Association can raise $100,000 more by February 28 the war deficit of the college will be met. An offer of $150,000 from an "anonymous friend," which the alumnae association announced yesterday, will make this possible.

The offer is contingent upon the raising of an equal amount by the alumnae association by the stated date. Altruism, the association has obtained $56,932.50 from 595 alumnae. There are 45,000 more from whom it may get the additional $100,000.

As the trustees of the college oblige, and $100,000 and the total deficit, caused by the high cost of labor and materials and the recent fire, amounts to $100,000, the entire amount will be provided for if the alumnae association reaches its goal by the time set.

Band Will Be Organized for Eighth Coast Artillery

Colonel S. G. Teets, of the 8th Coast Artillery, Kingsbridge Road, has requested Lieutenant Harold Stern to organize a band for that command. Lieutenant Stern, who is a pupil of Professor Auer and has given successful violin recitals at Aeolian and Carnegie halls, has issued an appeal to men in civilian life who are able to play instruments needed in the band. It will be an independent state organization and will be called upon only for special services, parades and special courtiers.

Lieutenant Stern offers free instruction to all civilians who volunteer, and Colonel Teets has agreed to furnish uniforms and specially-plated instruments as soon as the band is organized.
